

As with normal flows, each Agent (represented as a Function) may aggregate the global Multiflow object

Each Agent additionally may have its own local copy of the MultiFlow representing its perception of stimuli

The Global MultiFlow object contains each local copy, enabling propagation of properties between local flows

